Join us in as we travel to Ghana, West Africa and experience the country by living with host families, visiting rural and urban areas, and meeting with scholars to discuss Ghana's cultural traditions. We will explore historical and cultural sites, including the departure point for the Middle Passage and the W.E.B. DuBois Museum. This 3-credit program is based in Accra, Ghana's political/Administrative capital. This includes visiting Kumasi, Ghana's cultural capital and the Cape Coast.

Visit and tour:

- ◆ Kwame Nkrumah Mausoleum, Cultural Arts Center and shops
- ◆ Aburi Botanical Gardens and Aburi wood carving village
- ◆ Elmina Castle and Cape Coast Castle
- ◆ Kakum National Park and Canopy Walk
- ◆ Central Market and Tour Manhyia
- ◆ Palace home of Ashanti Kings
- ◆ Production sites in rural villages: Aso Afua-Assuming, Bonwire & Ntonso
- ◆ Prempeh II Jubilee Museum
- ◆ Tour of Tema: Ghana's Planned Post-Industrial city
- ◆ W.E.B. DuBois Center
- ◆ While performing some community service

Application Process:

- ◆ Submit the completed online registration form. The QR code is on the back page or use this link: Ghana Registration Form.
- ◆ To hold your space, a nonrefundable deposit of $750.00 is due at the time of registration. Payments can be made to the Cashier's Office.
