

SURGT-139: ST Clinical Practice 3

Course Description:

During this course the student functions relatively independently, while transitioning from student to prospective employee. The skills performed are commensurate with those of an entry level surgical technologist.

Total Credits: 4.00

Course Competencies:

- 1. Adapt to clinical site relatively independently.
- 2. Practice standard precautions.
- 3. Maintain sterile technique
- 4. Perform preoperative case management relatively independently.
- 5. Perform intraoperative case management relatively independently.
- 6. Perform postoperative case management relatively independently.
- 7. Operate within the legal, moral, and ethical responsibilities of the surgical technologist.
- 8. Manage pharmacological agents relatively independently.
- 9. Demonstrate professionalism.
- 10. Assist with circulating duties with supervision.