

Historical AAPI Weekly Facts

General Education (April 21st)

I.M. Pei (Chinese American, 1917–2019) – A world-famous architect known for designing the Louvre Pyramid and other educational institutions. Learn more.

Bee Vang Moua (Hmong American b.1983) – An educator and advocate, Bee Vang Moua has made significant contributions to Hmong cultural preservation and education. Through community outreach and academic initiatives, she empowers the Hmong community, focusing on education and the development of cultural understanding. Learn more.

Haunani-Kay Trask (Native Hawaiian, 1949–2021) – A scholar and activist advocating for Hawaiian sovereignty and Indigenous rights, especially through her role at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa. Learn more.