

Historical AAPI Weekly Facts

Healthcare (April 28th)

Haing S. Ngor (Cambodian American, 1940–1996) – A physician and survivor of the Khmer Rouge genocide who later became an Oscar-winning actor, using his platform to advocate for refugee healthcare. Learn more.

Tuan Vo-Dinh (Vietnamese American, b. 1948) – A scientist known for his pioneering work in biomedical photonics and cancer detection technology. Learn more.

Dr. Lani Graham (Tongan, b. 1950) – A pioneer in public health who has dedicated her career to improving healthcare access for Pacific Islander communities in the U.S., focusing on preventive health and reducing health disparities. Learn more.