

CLABT-111: Phlebotomy

Course Description:

This course provides the student with the knowledge and technique required to successfully perform venipunctures for the purpose of laboratory testing. Students learn about the anatomy of the arm, venipuncture supplies and venipuncture technique in addition to performing live venipunctures in class.

Total Credits: 2.00

*To apply for CPLE – Portfolio must contain Hospital Pharmacy work history documentation.

Course Competencies

1. Demonstrate ability to properly identify patients
2. Demonstrate knowledge of venipuncture equipment including tube types and their additives
3. Utilize the correct order of draw when performing venipuncture
4. Perform the venipuncture technique while adhering to the industry standards
5. Properly label and transport specimens
6. Adhere to state and federal regulations governing the practice phlebotomy